Note: Disaster Assistance is provided to families who have moved from a flooded home in one community to a new home in another. For example, Thibodaux did not have significant damage from the storms, but many families with new Thibodaux addresses have received assistance because they needed help with relocation expenses. In other cases families were in hotels in Houma, Thibodaux or Morgan City and needed help. Additional disaster spending expenses are reported in the CSS June 30, 2007 Disaster Report available online at www.htdiocese.org/css or call CSS at 876-0490.
